

Google Forms

drive.google.com

What it is for.

You can create an organized list of questions.

You have 9 types of available questions.

Distribute your questionnaire to anyone with an internet connection.

You can easily collect responses.

How it works:

It's free!

You just need a Google account and an internet connection.

Very easy to get started.

You can collect all the data you want.

Easy to share and distribute.

You can add videos or photos.

You can organize questions into sections.

You can create quizzes. You can provide instant feedback.

Benefits for teaching:

Very easy to use, share and embedd.

No clutter workspace and interface.

Get imediate results and feedback.

Easy to use for practicing tests and exams.

You can allow students to perform self evaluations.

You can collect student data and get to know them better.

You can build statistics, charts and graphs from the results.